

Salesian Youth Center in Pilsen

Annotation

This bachelor thesis describes the foundation and evolution of the Salesian Youth Center in Pilsen. It aims to provide the readers with a comprehensive view of how the Center works with specific target groups; how the basic type of work is expanding – the Center, oratory and parish. The work tries to monitor all of the Salesians who have worked for the project during its gradual expansion to its present form. It describes the impact on its surroundings and what specific activities can be practiced. The thesis also describes “Střecha (The Roof)” project, which is still developing, as well as other projects that have been developed.
